70th annual Cranberry Festival in Bandon, Oregon

Bandon, OR– Cheers to 70 years of the Bandon Cranberry Festival! The longest running festival on the Oregon Coast boasts seven decades of family fun with a parade, festival market, street dance and more. Join the festivities September 10 and 11, 2016.

Take a walk down memory lane at the Saturday morning parade, with a revival of past festival themes. Farmers and artisans strut their stuff at Cranberry City and the Festival Market while hungry festival goers dive into the cranberry eating contest to win prizes. The popular street dance returns Saturday evening with featured performer Morgan Alexander.

Get the full list of festival events at bandon.com/cranberry-festival. Or, visit the Bandon Visitors Center, open daily, in Old Town Bandon.
